

P&HCC F-1 Student Financial Statement

F-1 students must demonstrate sufficient financial resources to cover all educational and living expenses while enrolled at Patrick & Henry Community College (P&HCC). Students must submit a bank statement or bank certification form for themselves and/or their sponsor showing funds equal to or greater than the estimated annual cost.

Financial documentation must meet the following requirements:

- Issued by a licensed financial institution
- Show readily available liquid funds
- Be dated within six (6) months of the program start date
- Be in English or accompanied by a certified English translation
- Show all amounts in U.S. dollars

The following are not accepted: investments, retirement accounts, stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit (CDs), or statements from online-only or investment-based accounts (such as PayPal, cryptocurrency accounts, or digital banks).

Estimated Costs Per Year: $17,130

- Tuition and fees¹ : $9,330
- Living expenses² : $6,300
- Books and supplies: $1,500

Student Certification

I understand the estimated annual costs of attendance, and I have submitted acceptable financial documents demonstrating my ability to cover these expenses. I understand that if sufficient funds are not available, I may be unable to continue my education. I also understand that F-1 students must maintain full-time enrollment and may not work off campus without authorization from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.
