

Sponsor's Affidavit of Support

A financial sponsor may be a parent, family member, or other individual who agrees to provide financial support. The sponsor is not required to reside in the United States. If more than one sponsor is providing support, each sponsor must complete a separate form.

A sponsor may provide full or partial support; however, the student's total financial support must equal or exceed the estimated annual cost listed on the F-1 Student Financial Statement.

Sponsor Documentation Requirements

In addition to signing this form, the sponsor must provide a bank statement or bank certification form that:

- Is issued by a licensed financial institution
- Includes the sponsor's name, the bank's name, and the account type
- Reflects readily available liquid funds (checking or savings only)
- Is dated within six (6) months of the student's program start date
- Is in English or accompanied by a certified English translation
- Shows all amounts in U.S. dollars

The following are not accepted: investments, retirement accounts, stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit (CDs), or statements from online-only or investment-based accounts (including PayPal, cryptocurrency accounts, or digital banks).

Sponsor Certification

I understand that this document will be used by the student to obtain or maintain F-1 status, including visa issuance and SEVIS record updates. I certify that I am willing and able to provide the financial support indicated above.

I understand that if I fail to provide this support, Patrick & Henry Community College is not obligated to assist the student financially, and the student may be unable to continue his or her education in the United States. I understand that F-1 students are not permitted to work off campus without authorization, and I will not require or expect the student to provide services in exchange for financial support.
